- Original RHD car with matching numbers
- Recent work includes new brake callipers and master cylinders all round
- Described by the current vendor as "Good to Excellent" all round

Finished in the classic combination of Red bodywork complemented by Black interior trim, this very tidy-looking Spider is an original righthand drive example with matching numbers engine and gearbox. It's been in its current ownership for three years and has recently benefited from the replacement of the brake master cylinder and all four calipers, and rides on a handsome set of period Momo alloy wheels. The vendor presently grades the bodywork and paintwork as 'excellent', the sonorous twin-cam engine as 'good/excellent', and the interior trim and five-speed manual transmission as 'good'. He says 'JUL 995N' is endowed with 'sharp handling and positive steering and notes that the engine exhibits excellent oil pressure and pulls strongly. The Series 2 Spider was launched in 1970 and featured a distinctive 'Kamm' tail. A year later its engine capacity was increased to 1962cc, prompting the model name to be changed to 2000 Spider Veloce.
