Introduced in the UK in March 1980 and was the first car offered by the company that had no external differences from the car it was spun from, the Opel Kadett D. The first front-wheel-drive car built by GM Europe, and it ushered in a new range of overhead cam engines, that was a leap forward from what came before. In 1.3-litre form, the power output developed was some 75bhp, same as the Cavalier Mk2's 1.6-litre.

This exceedingly rare 1300 S Celebrity limited edition example was manufactured in 1984, being supplied new by H. Goodall & Son Ltd of Evesham on the 4th of May 1984. Fitted with the 1297cc straight-four engine mated to the five-speed manual transmission, the Astra is finished in Grey over Silver colour scheme with Grey cloth interior upholstery. Having covered just 56,257 miles from new (at time of consignment), the 1300 S has been in current ownership since 2019 and has just seven former keepers. Supplied with the original stamped service book which displays extensive entries regarding the servicing and upkeep of the Astra, it is further accompanied by the owners manual, numerous past tax discs and a current V5C.
