The Audi A8 was first presented in February 1994 and debuted at the 1994 Geneva Auto Show in March, with full-scale factory production commencing in June 1994. The all-wheel-drive Quattro models are powered by a larger 4.2-litre unit producing 300hp and 295ft pound of torque, mated to a 5-speed automatic transmission. With aluminium body panels, the result of the Quattro Sport models was a full-size luxury sedan that weighs hundreds of pounds less than competitors, allowing the 4.2 Quattro to reach 60mph in only 6.4 seconds.

This 1995 A8 4.2 is finished in a Dark Grey with a Grey leather & Alcantara interior. In 2018 the car was converted into a pickup, adding a sizeable rear cargo deck, including a lift-up lid for tools and the spare wheel and storage bins for fuel cans. Having covered an unwarranted 159,637 the car is said by the vendor to be in very good mechanical condition. It comes with along MOT until May 2023 and a new V5C has been applied for.
