- A former US military vehicle
- £10,000 invested with Classic American Restorations in having the bodywork restored
- An interesting project for the long winter evenings ahead

If you are seeking a project with which to while away the long winter evenings, then look no further. The vendor of this 1971 Chevy rolling chassis purchased it as a relative wreck in 2012 and invested £10,000 with Classic American Restorations of Powys in having the bodywork restored. A new keeper is now required to complete the project and bring this former US military vehicle back to the road, where it can be enjoyed. It is being sold at No Reserve, so if a Chevelle is the car you always promised yourself, you could well bag yourself a bargain. This mid-sized Chevrolet was produced in three generations from 1964 to 1978 and was one of its maker's most successful models, that were offered in Saloon, Coupe, Convertible and Estate Car guises. The sale car is an example of the second generation Saloon and would have been powered by any one of several straight-six or V8 engines.
